

Eagle Butte School District	NEPN Code: JFAA
Policy Manual

SEARCH AND SEIZURE - STUDENT

All district property, including, but not limited to, real estate, buildings, offices, desks, storage areas, lockers, computer systems and equipment, voice-mail, and vehicles, is owned by the district, and is intended for educational purposes, and district business, at all times.

Neither staff members, nor students, shall have any expectation of privacy when using school property. The district reserves the right to monitor, inspect, copy, review and store (at any time and without notice) all usage of district property including computer and computer systems, including all internet and electronic communications access, even personal social and email accounts used through School District server system and transmission/receipt of materials and information. All material and information accessed and/or received through district computers and computer systems shall remain the property of the School District.

System users have no right of privacy and should have no expectation of privacy in materials sent, received, or stored in district-owned computers or on the district system or within the physical area of the district. School officials reserved the right to review district system/property use at any time to determine if such use meets the criteria set forth in school board policies and district regulations. Routine maintenance and monitoring of the system and physical plant may lead to the discovery that the user has or is violating district policy or law. Once a problem is discovered, an individual search may be conducted. The search/investigation will be reasonable and will be in keeping with the nature of the alleged misconduct.

School officials may grant law enforcement officials permission to use drug dogs on property owned and/or controlled by the Cheyenne-Eagle Butte Schools.

Employees or students violating acceptable use of district property, or policy, may be subject to disciplinary action by the Superintendent or designee, depending on the nature of the violation.

Upon entry of a building through security checkpoints or other entry points, reasonable searches of personal property, including but not limited to backpacks, book bags, athletic bags, instrument cases, and purses, may be conducted by school security personnel, resource officers, and/or administrators when there is reasonable suspicion of the presence of any item(s) that is in violation of law, District policies, or other rules applicable to students, or if the designated personnel has reasonable suspicion that any item(s) contain materials that otherwise pose a threat to the health, welfare, or safety of the student or the school community.
