Policy Manual

STUDENT ABSENCES AND EXCUSES

A student's contribution to and achievement in class are directly related to attendance. Both students and parents must understand that students miss a vital portion of their education when they are absent from school.

While it is true that written work can be completed for make-up, class instruction or presentations, discussions, some audio-visual presentations, or student-teacher interaction can never be made up.

Certain absences of students will be excused by the principal or designee on receipt of a signed written note with an explanation from the parent or guardian, or a phone call from the parent or guardian. These absences will include:

1. illness or quarantine;
2. Bereavement or serious illness in family;
3. Weather so inclement as to endanger the health of the child;
4. Observance of major religious holidays.
5. Administration discretion or as determined by the Principal or designee on a case by case basis.

A child may also be excused for other exceptional reasons with approval of the school administrator. Also with such approval, students may be eligible to be counted for school attendance for up to five days each term if an excuse from actual school attendance is requested by a parent or guardian for attendance at a state or nationally recognized youth program of educational value or for the purpose of working as a precinct election official if the student is at least eighteen years old.

In instances of chronic or irregular absence reportedly due to illness, the school administration may request a physician's statement certifying such absences to be justifiable. Any absence other than excused absence is considered truancy.
